About DRR Polytechnic:

D.R.R. Government Polytechnic, Davangere was established in 1947 as occupational institute to cater to the needs of technical manpower by Maharaja of erstwhile princely state of Mysore. On account of noble and generous donations made by Dharmaprakasha Rajanahalli Ramashetty of Davangere, the institute was named after him. After reorganization of state in 1956, the Government of Mysore changed the name of the institution as D.R.R. Government Polytechnic. The Institution foundation is laid by Sri. Nijalingappa the Chief Minister of Karnataka on 1963. Since inception our institution is experiencing glorious moments due to dedicated staff and meritorious student community. The campus is well maintained with sustained greening around with dedication and efforts of staff and students. The institution has on its records best alumni serving in Government and private sectors.
